Massachusetts Sheltered English Immersion Administrator Course

Starts on January 9, 2018

Individuals who need or want to earn the SEI endorsement may pay to enroll in an SEI Endorsement course through MATSOL, a provider approved by Massachusetts Department of Elementary and Secondary Education. This for-cost course covers the exact same curriculum as the Department's no-cost course, is taught by instructors who have been vetted and trained by the Department. This course is an approved pathway to SEI Endorsement for:

- Any administrator who evaluates core content educators working with English learners.
- Administrators who failed their endorsement course the first time around.
- Administrators who, for personal reasons, did not avail themselves of no-cost administrator courses when they were available.
